The Basic Position of Chinese Side

China attaches great importance to and severely combats relevant maritime transnational crime.
China attaches great importance to and adhere to fulfill the goal of sustainable development of fishery resources, and firmly object IUU fishing.
How to tackle IUU fishing in a better and more normative way?

A comparatively regular mechanism for combating IUU fishing and its management has been formed and recognized by the International community currently.

The vitality of law and system lies in enforcement. We should give priority to the implementation of current system and arrangement.
We need to form a correct knowledge of IUU fishing and avoid the expansion of IUU concept.
The essence of IUU fishing is a fishery management issue and it should be differentiated from criminal activities.
Avoid excessive use of force in the law enforcement Process.
Fishing in disputed waters should not be deemed equal to IUU fishing.
The Cases of Combating IUU fishing by China

Chinese government took "zero-tolerance" attitude to severely crack down any forms of illegal behaviors.

China joined into 7 regional Fisheries Management organizations, it covered all the footprint of Chinese fishing vessels on the high seas.
